Would you be able to deploy to Durango tomorrow evening?

It's over. Not a lot of info. A few remarks about website updates and getting some content done tomorrow. Maybe a map getting approved for web site. Spanish translation of some materials and explaining a return call process for Spanish callers.

Perhaps posting data tables tonight.

Yes, did not mean to ignore the official source of the request. Is Paula ok with it? She has not responded to my emails.

I'm still here. Was redirected by Joan to stay and help with messaging and Qs and As.

Are we expecting a data release tonight to send to congs and media and stakeholder list, or no?
